Ross,

If Brian or I get something, we will pass it along.

FYI – I didn't realize that the actual existence of the Jersey barriers during our 2007 cleanup would come into dispute. For what it's worth, I've attached our final remediation summary showing them clearly visible at that time.

Thanks again,

Naren

Looks promising. Interesting that Dikmen's own consultant pretty much agrees with your proposal on a plan for moving forward. Could you please share the laundry list of things Dikmen's group will come up with in the future. Thanks!!!
